

KEYNOTES AND WORKSHOPS DR. DAN EVANS

Author. Teacher. Speaker.

- Chief Academic Officer
- Principal of the Year
- Instructional Coach

Dan Evans, Ed.D. is an accomplished author and sought-after trainer and speaker on educational reform. Dan brings an inspiring mix of humor, personal narrative, and practical advice for teachers and leaders. Like so many children in our schools, Dan stared down his own childhood struggles and turned despair and defeat into a lifetime of success through faith and love for children and teachers.

He led innovative instructional change in one of the nation's largest school districts, and the district earned its highest achievement scores in reading, math, and science in its history. Dan has also served as a successful turnaround principal and was named the district's winner and state nominee for the Principal Achievement Award for Outstanding Leadership. His latest book, Remarkable Learning: A Guidebook for Building Creative and Confident Kids, was released in 2026 (Bloomsbury, London.)

In celebration of teachers, Dan pinpoints what really works in our classrooms without the tricks and shortcuts. He calls on schools and districts to renew our faith in teachers as the lead experts in moving schools forward. He believes that all children can learn at exceedingly high levels, no matter their backgrounds or struggles. We can create schools that are challenging and exhilarating places to learn, if only we have the courage and we dare it to be.

POPULAR KEYNOTE TOPICS (EXAMPLES):

Creative and Confident Kids!

Yes, I Can! Building a Confidence Curriculum in Our Schools

Schools must be in the confidence-building business. There are specific actions that teachers can take to increase grade-level proficiency and elevate student voice. Parents play a critical role as well in building student self-esteem and unleashing their creative potential.

Professional Growth and Retention!

Keeping it Real. Retaining and Celebrating our Best Employees.

If we want to grow and retain our best employees, we must honor their worth and voice in more tangible ways. It is time to consider a planned coherence approach that provides employees with a personal and professional growth cycle that includes affirmation, recognition, self-expression, and transformation. There is more at play here than promotion and pay. We can do more in giving them voice, honoring their sacrifice, and soaking up their brilliance.
